Dear Mr. Nida,

The time I have is enormously reduced by my wife's and my medical needs and I much prefer to use what time is left from those needs on work. But as you saw, when people who care do call, I do take that time.

I can no longer do that in correspondence.

Of all the books the only ones I can really recommend are very hard to get. Sylvia Meagher's Accessories After the Fact is magnificent and Howard Roffman's Presumed Guilty is perhaps the best simplification.

If I did not tell you, all the books I published are now available from the bookstore at local Hood College, one of the finest of the small colleges, at 401 Rosemont Ave., Frederick, 21701.

Thanks for your kind comments.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
